

The plotters continue despite the new risk

[Thomas Wintour]

Catesby and I met Tresham on Thursday at Barnet and questioned him as to how this letter got sent to my Lord Monteagle. But he maintained his innocence! He swore he was not our accuser. The suspicion of all hands had put us into such confusion.

[Thomas Wintour to Tresham]

I'll cut your tongue out you traitor.