On the beach

It's a nice day today. Mr Square, Mrs Circle and Mrs Triangle are on the beach. They swim in the sea, they play football and they build a sandcastle. They're hungry, so they eat chips and drink lemonade.

All of a sudden, it gets windy.

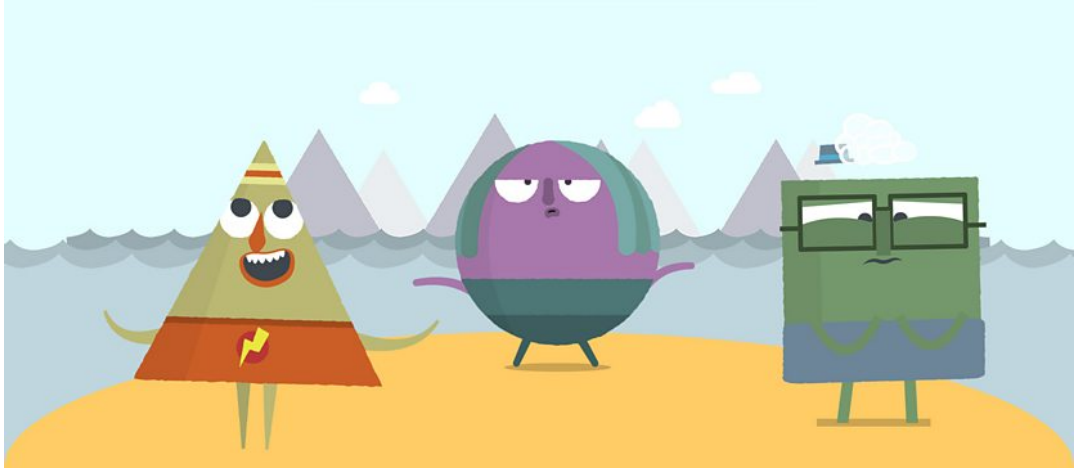

Mrs Triangle finds a treasure map.

"Look! I've found a treasure map. Let's look for the treasure!"

Mrs Circle and Mr Square aren't interested.

They're happy and are enjoying eating their chips.

"Let's go!" says Mrs Triangle.

They walk on the beach. They turn left at the café, then right and left.

They are looking for an island, but they are lost and can't find it.

Mrs Circle is furious. They meet a big orange cat.

"Hello Mr Cat. We're lost. Can you help us please?" asks Mrs. Triangle.

The big orange cat is very intelligent. He says, "Turn left. Continue straight on.

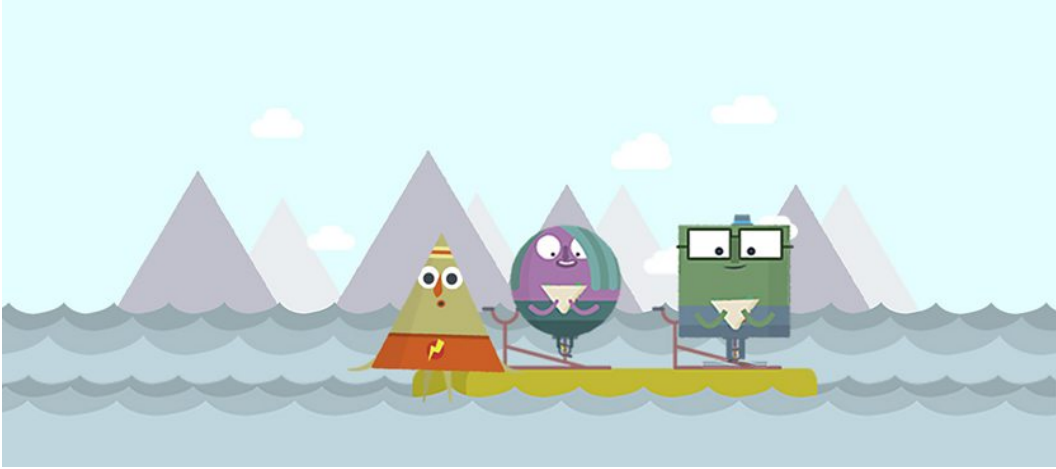

Swim in the blue sea."

Mrs Triangle says, "I like swimming!"

Mr Square says, "I don't like swimming!"

The friends travel by boat.

Mrs Triangle says, "Let's go! Turn left. Continue straight on."

Mrs Triangle falls from the boat.

"Oh no!" says Mrs Circle.

Fortunately, Mrs Triangle likes swimming in the blue sea.

Mrs Triangle swims in the blue sea.

She finds a treasure chest. She opens the chest. Inside the chest, she finds two little monsters. One monster is blue and has big, orange legs.

The other monster is red and has little, blue legs.

“Wow. Hello little monsters. How are you?” says Mrs Triangle. “You’re my new friends!”
