

What do animals need to survive?

Match the definition to the correct word, remember all four are things that animals need to survive.

Food

Water

Shelter

Air

Animals need to stay hydrated and keep them cool. Some animals drink it and others, like fish, absorb it through their skin.

Some animals, like mammals, have lungs to breathe in and take in oxygen that keeps them alive. Fish use gills.

Animals need for protection. It protects them from predators, gives them somewhere to sleep and keeps them warm or cool.

Every animal needs as it gives them energy and helps them to grow.

