

Natoo parle de l'environnement (Translation)

- Natoo: With all our rubbish, the planet will become a rubbish bin. And our houses will also become rubbish bins!
We must protect the environment! So, I decided to become a Planet Super Hero!
Planet Super Hero!
But unfortunately, I don't have super powers.
So, I decided to take action at home. And at home, I have to fight a BIG enemy of the planet:
MY BOYFRIEND.
- So here are my solutions!
What a waste of energy! One must always TURN OFF lights!!! Why don't you do it? Why? WHY???
- Kemar: Because I'm afraid of the dark!
- Natoo: As Planet Super Hero, I want to protect endangered animals!
Look at this fur. It's horrible! Aren't you ashamed? Take that off and put this on!
This way, you wear fur without killing animals!
No, no, no!!! Never use chemical detergents! It's very bad! Use organic products!
- Kemar: But I don't have organic detergents!
- Natoo: Well then, don't wash anything!
Not only must one not use chemical products. One must also never waste water! EEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE!!!!
- Kemar: Ready? Let's go?
- Natoo: Yes, but let's not take the car. It pollutes too much!
- Kemar: Let's take the motorbike, then.
- Natoo: No, I have a better idea. Let's take the most ecological method of transport in the world!
Voilà! Now my boyfriend thinks about the environment!
Kemar! Can you pass me some loo roll please?
- Kemar: Oh no! One must not waste paper!
- Natoo: Kemar?!? KEMAR!!!
