

A world without citizenship

Imagine a world where citizens aren't active.

What do you think your community would be like?

Read through the questions below and think about how you would answer them.

Questions:

1. What do you think your community would look like if citizens weren't active?
2. How do you think people would behave in this world? Do you think people would be kind and helpful to others? Why do you think this?
3. Do you think this world would have rules to help keep people safe in their community? Would people follow rules? Explain your answer.
4. What does being a responsible and active citizen mean to you?
5. How would you encourage people in your community to be responsible and active citizens.

Why not try drawing a picture of what you think a world without citizenship would look like?

How different would it be?
