

Disastrous drama

You're acting like bored pirates.

And now you're acting like surprised pirates. Acting can tell us more about the character you're pretending to be.

You've got the costume ready. So let's improvise, that means make it up as we go along.

Director, if you could help out with some props for the scene please!

You're searching for treasure on a desert island...
...but it's nighttime and there's a freezing chill in the air, brrrrrr.

Oh look the sun has risen and it's soooo bright. Now you're tired and hot, what a plot twist. Amazing performance.

What's that in the distance... a pirate ship, it's sailing in fast.
Wow what an exciting and moving performance.

Here comes the big finale.
