

Éist le Peadar agus Áine ag cur síos ar a gcairde. (Transcript)

Peadar : Dia duit. Is mise Peadar.

Is maith le mo chairde am a chaitheamh liom agus éisteann siad liom. Labhraím leo má tá fadhb agam mar tá aithne mhaith agam orthu le blianta fada.

Bíonn siad ionraic liom i gcónaí. Tuigeann siad mé.

Áine : Is mise Áine.

Tá a lán cairde agam agus is maith liom sin. Gan dabht, is maith liom cara atá dílis.

Bíonn duine atá dílis taobh leat i gcónaí. Níor cheart do dhlúthchairde bheith ag troid nó ag argóint ar chor ar bith.

Listen to Peadar and Áine describe their friends. (Translation)

Peadar : Hello. My name is Peadar.

My friends like to spend time with me and they listen to me. I talk to them if i have a problem because i have known them for many long years.

They are always honest with me. They understand me.

Áine : I'm Áine.

I have a lot of friends and I like that. Without a doubt, I like a friend who is loyal.

A person who is loyal will be on your side always. Best friends shouldn't be fighting or arguing at all.
