

Éist le Seosamh ag cur síos ar Oíche Shamhna. (Translations)

Seosamh: It was Halloween Night and Halloween is the festival I prefer every year. Again this year, I had very good fun.

Firstly, my mum prepared a big dinner for us. We had lamb and for dessert, we ate cake and apple tart. Myself and my friend, Lucy, dressed in fancy dress. I was a werewolf and Lucy was dressed as a ghost.

I wore a mask and a big brown tail. When it was dark, we went from door to door. The neighbours did not recognise us at all. My grandmother didn't even recognise me!

We got a lot of food throughout the night – bars of chocolate, sweets of every sort, nuts, oranges and even apples.

At eight o'clock, we walked to Gráinne's house because there was a house party going on. The house was packed with our friends from school. We played a lot of games, for example, there was a basin of water with money in it.

We had to take the money out with our mouth. We were all soaked to the skin in the end. At the end of the night, a bonfire was lit in the local park and there were fireworks. They were multi-coloured and extremely pretty!