The Moon

By Robert Louis Stevenson

Illustrated by Zoe Barnish

BBC Bitesize

The moon has a face like the clock in the hall;

She shines on thieves
on the garden wall,

On streets..

and fields..

and harbour quays,

And birdies asleep in the forks of the trees.

The squalling cat and the squeaking mouse,

The howling dog

by the door of the house,

The bat that lies in bed at noon,
All love to be out by the light of the moon.

But all of the things that belong to the day

Cuddle to sleep to be out of her way;

and flowers and children close their eyes

Till up in the morning the sun will arise.
