

Activity 4: Answers

It was an ordinary day on the building site. The builders were working hard on a new tower. Suddenly, a huge gorilla-monster was climbing up it!

I am standing in the street right now. And all around me, people are pointing up at the gorilla-monster.

The gorilla-monster is nearly at the top. One of the builders yells at us to stay back. The other builders hide.

Cars, buses and trucks all stand still in the street. We all wait, silent and afraid.

The gorilla-monster sits on top of the tower. It waves its hairy arms. It eats the bricks.

The tower shakes and shudders.

No one knows what will happen next. But I can hear the gorilla-monster roaring and I am terrified!
