

Exciting writing

Pens and paper at the ready. Let's do some exciting writing!
As the storyteller, you help us see the story as you imagine it.

Yes, our main character. A courageous knight on an epic quest.
Our hero is looking for treasure... but where?

In a dark, spooky castle of course.

Thunderous roars echo through the room. Gruesome ghosts hide around every corner. How exciting!

The nightmarish roars get louder as they approach a large creaky door. What beast must lay on the other side? A spiky, scaley, smelly and...

small dragon?

Ahh, they look like an adorable, friendly dragon.

Look! The treasure, how intriguing! Oh, another treasure map!
A great starting point for our next piece of exciting writing!
