A monstrous adventure

Fred: Hello. I am called Fred and I live near a forest.

I wear glasses that help me to see creatures that nobody else can.

My rucksack is packed, my boots are on and I'm ready for an adventure.

Fred: Who are you?

Monster 1: I am called Clyro and I live in the trees.

I have six arms that help me to climb where nobody else can climb. I am green so that I can hide in the trees.

A monstrous adventure

Fred: Who are you?

Monster 2: I am called Slidder and I live in the bushes.

I have a big nose that helps me to smell what nobody else can smell. I do not need eyes, because I live in the dark.

Fred: Who are you?

Monster 3: I am called Swithe and I live in the water.

I have a lot of fins that help me to swim where nobody else can swim. My big eyes let me see at the bottom of the sea.

A monstrous adventure

Fred: Who are you?

Monster 4: I am called Flite and I live in the sky.

I have two wings that help me to fly where nobody else can fly. My song is the most beautiful in the world.

Fred: That's enough for one day. All this adventuring has made me hungry!
